Seconded National Expert

Seconded National Expert
EU Delegation Democratic Republic of Congo

AD level post – cost-free

Job No 448183

WE ARE:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is the European Union's diplomatic service. Since 2011, the EEAS carries out the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) to promote peace, prosperity, security, and the interests of the EU across the globe. It brings together European civil servants, diplomats from EU Member States, national experts and local staff worldwide.

The EEAS supports the High Representative in the exercise of her mandate to steer the Union's CFSP, including the Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP), to represent the EU on issues relating to the CFSP and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports her as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States, the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The EEAS Headquarters are in Brussels. It is also responsible for the management of the network of 145 Union Delegations and Offices worldwide. These Diplomatic Representations play a vital role in representing the EU in the country where they are based, in promoting the values and interests of the EU, and in building networks and partnerships. They are responsible for all policy areas of the relationship between the EU and the host country/organisation.

WE PROPOSE:

D. Personal Qualities

Dynamic, motivated and flexible personality that is able to work proactively and in teams within a multi-cultural environment. Must be willing to take short-term missions.

CONDITIONS OF SECONDMENT:

Conflict of interest

The EEAS shall examine whether the candidates have any actual or potential conflict of interest or personal interest such as to impair their independence. To that end, the candidates shall inform the EEAS of any actual or potential conflict of interest, taking also into account their professional situation and their family circumstances, in particular their own or their family's professional activities or financial interests. In this context, all candidates shall fill with their application a declaration of potential conflict of interest (Annex I).

As a matter of policy, applications by individuals who have dual nationality of which one of a non-EU country, will be considered on a case-by-case basis taking account in particular of the functions attributed to the vacant post. The EEAS shall also take into account any specific local and global-security context, issues with diplomatic status or other concerns about risks to the personal security of the candidate or to the security interests of the Union.

Personnel Security Clearance

The requested level of security clearance for this post is: SECRET UE/EU SECRET. A description of the EU classified information levels is available under Article 2 of Annex A of the Decision ADMIN(2023) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS⁴.

⁴ OJ C 263, 26 July 2023, p.16.

The selected candidate should hold a valid PSC issued by the national security authority of an EU Member State that is equivalent at least to the level indicated in the preceding paragraph, for the duration of the secondment to the EEAS.

Accordingly, all candidates shall fill with their application a declaration of possession of a PSC at the appropriate level (Annex II).

In exceptional cases, for reasons duly justified by the seconding authority and after approval by the EEAS Security Authority, the required PSC issued by the national security authority of an EU Member State may be submitted no later than 6 months after the start date of the secondment⁵.

Please note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a PSC can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate.

Visa

The EEAS shall cooperate with the relevant authorities of the receiving State where the Union Delegation is located in order to obtain all authorisations necessary for the SNEs to fulfil their duties. The start date of the secondment of the SNE in a Union Delegation is subject to the delivery of such authorisations and/or the fulfilment of entry visa requirements set by the relevant authorities of the receiving State, in order to allow the SNE to take up duties in the place of secondment.

If any of these authorisations and/or visa is denied or not obtained within a reasonable time that takes account of the interest of the service, the EEAS shall withdraw the secondment offer. In exceptional circumstances and in the interest of the service, the EEAS may, instead, determine another place of secondment through a further exchange of letters with the employer of the SNE.

HEAT

Hostile Environment Awareness Training (HEAT) is mandatory for this posting.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES:

The EEAS strives to be a dynamic, respectful and inclusive Service. We value the talent and professional excellence of our staff, and are committed to building an organisation where gender equality and the respect of diversity are core values, as set out in the EEAS Mission Statement and the EEAS Agenda for Diversity and Inclusion. The EEAS is committed to achieving gender balance within its workforce and strives to avoid any form of discrimination during this selection procedure, as per Article 1(d) of the Staff Regulations. We actively welcome applications from all qualified candidates without any discrimination based on any ground. We commit to recruit candidates with the highest standard of ability, efficiency and integrity, carrying out a selection based on merits required for the post and from the broadest possible geographical basis among the EU Member States.

The EEAS is committed to working with people with disabilities in the terms of Staff Regulations. If, by virtue of your medical condition or special needs, you require reasonable accommodation for a part or the entirety of this selection process, please send us an email to SNE-Delegations@eeas.europa.eu. Your request will be treated in strict confidence, and no record will be kept. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Article 1(d)(4) of the Staff Regulations.

All selected candidates are expected to adhere to the Principles of Professional Behaviour of the EEAS, which outline the need for integrity, transparency, respect, professionalism and accountability, and a zero-tolerance approach to any form of harassment.

ANNEX I

DECLARATION OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST TO BE FILLED BY CANDIDATES

The Decision HR(2026) 18 of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy of 20 July 2026 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the EEAS (hereinafter, the 'EEAS SNE Decision') states:

- in Article 2(3): "The EEAS shall examine whether candidates have any actual or potential conflict of interest or personal interest such as to impair their independence. To that end, candidates, using a dedicated form, shall inform the EEAS of any actual or potential conflict of interest, taking also into account their professional situation and their family circumstances, in particular their own or their family's professional activities or financial interests. On the basis of the assessment conducted, the EEAS may decide not to proceed with the secondment".
- in Article 8(1)(c): "During the secondment, the SNE shall immediately inform their line manager if, in the performance of their duties, they become aware of an actual or potential conflict of interest, or are called upon to give a decision on the handling or the outcome of a matter in which, directly or indirectly, they have a personal interest such as to impair their independence, and, in particular, family's professional activities or financial interests".

It is the candidates' duty to inform through this form the EEAS of any actual or potential conflict of interest regarding their future tasks. They shall be broad in their identification of actual or potential conflict of interests. It is reminded that it will be up to the administration, and not to the candidates themselves, to assess on this basis whether they are sources of conflict of interests and, if applicable, whether they constitute an issue for the secondment.
