

Vacancy Notice
Seconded National Expert

Policy Officer, Iran Division (EEAS POL MENA6)

AD level post – cost-free

Job no. 522036

WE ARE:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is the European Union's diplomatic service. Since 2011, the EEAS carries out the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) to promote peace, prosperity, security, and the interests of the EU across the globe. It brings together European civil servants, diplomats from EU Member States, national experts and local staff worldwide.

The EEAS supports the High Representative in the exercise of her mandate to steer the Union's CFSP, including the Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP), to represent the EU on issues relating to the CFSP and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports her as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States, the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The EEAS Headquarters are in Brussels. It is also responsible for the management of the network of 145 Union Delegations and Offices worldwide. These Diplomatic Representations play a vital role in representing the EU in the country where they are based, in promoting the values and interests of the EU, and in building networks and partnerships. They are responsible for all policy areas of the relationship between the EU and the host country/organisation.

WE PROPOSE:

Functions and Duties

The post of a "cost-free" Seconded National Expert on the position of Policy Officer in the Iran Division (POL MENA6), covering in particular Iran's domestic situation (political and human rights, security and economic developments).

The successful candidate will join the EEAS' Iran Division (POL MENA6) in the Department for Middle East and Northern Africa (MENA) under the supervision of the Deputy Secretary

General for Political Affairs and in close cooperation with other EEAS departments and European Commission services.

Under the authority of the Head of the Iran Division, the Seconded National Expert is expected to perform the following tasks:

- Provide regular briefings, analysis, expert advice as well as operational support in implementing and shaping the EU's policies vis-à-vis Iran, taking into account the broader political and socio-economic dimensions.
- Liaise, as appropriate, with other EU bodies, EU Member States, including the country representing the EU locally in Iran, as well as a wide range of diplomatic stakeholders and civil society representatives.
- Maintain close contact with relevant services across EEAS geographic and thematic departments, Commission services, to ensure complementarity and consistency of EU policy on Iran, including through the EXCO group and in the context of Council Working Groups (MOG/COHOM/IPCR).
- Prepare briefing notes for the HRVP and senior EU officials, other policy papers and material relevant to the Division's work.

Allowances and financial coverage

Seconded National Experts (hereinafter “SNEs”) shall be entitled to:

- reimbursement of mission expenses incurred during the secondment;
- accident insurance policy¹, however accident coverage is not extended to family members.
- where applicable², standby duty allowance or shiftwork allowance.

Start date and duration of secondment

The start date of the secondment shall be the first day of service at the place of secondment.

The initial period of secondment may not exceed two years and may be extended successively up to a period not exceeding four years in total. At the request of the relevant Managing Director or equivalent, the Director responsible for Human Resources may authorise, in exceptional cases and in the interest of the service, one or more extensions of the secondment for a maximum of two years at the end of the four-year period. The total duration of the secondment shall in no case exceed six years.

Position immediately available.

CONDITIONS OF SECONDMENT:

Conflict of interest

The EEAS shall examine whether candidates have any actual or potential conflict of interest or personal interest such as to impair their independence. To that end, candidates shall inform the EEAS of any actual or potential conflict of interest, taking also into account their professional situation and their family circumstances, in particular their own or their family's professional activities or financial interests. In this context, all candidates shall fill with their application a declaration of potential conflict of interest (Annex I).

As a matter of policy, applications by individuals who have dual nationality of which one of a non-EU country, will be considered on a case-by-case basis taking account in particular of the functions attributed to the vacant post.

Personnel Security Clearance (PSC)

The requested level of security clearance for this post is: EU-SECRET/SECRET-UE. A description of the EU classified information levels is available under Article 2 of Annex A of the Decision ADMIN(2023) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS⁵.

The selected candidate should hold a valid PSC issued by the national security authority of an EU Member State that is equivalent at least to the level indicated in the preceding paragraph, for the duration of the secondment to the EEAS.

Accordingly, all candidates shall fill with their application a declaration of possession of a PSC at the appropriate level (Annex II).

In exceptional cases, for reasons duly justified by the seconding authority and after approval by the EEAS Security Authority, the required PSC issued by the national security authority of an EU Member State may be submitted no later than 6 months after the start date of the secondment⁶.

Please note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a PSC can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate.

School fees

Costs related to nurseries and after-school centres managed by the early childhood centre of the European Commission or by any other EU institution, as well as transportation costs to school, shall not be covered by the EEAS. Schooling costs related to the enrolment in a European School Type I shall be covered by the EEAS in compliance with the Convention defining the Statute of the European Schools of 21 June 1994⁷. For further information, please contact RM-01-COORDINATION@eeas.europa.eu.

⁵ OJ C 263, 26 July 2023, p.16.

⁶ During such a period, specific measures shall be taken, including but not limited to those described in Article 7 of the Decision ADMIN(2025) 42 of the Secretary-General of the European External Action Service of 20 November 2025 on Implementing Rules and Procedures for Personnel Security measures for protection of EU Classified Information. Until the PSC is issued by the competent authority of the Member State concerned, the selected candidate will not be authorised to access EUCI at the level of CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above, or to participate in any meetings or workflow where EUCI is processed.

⁷ Convention defining the statute of the European schools (OJ L 212, 17.8.1994, p. 3–14).

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES:

The EEAS strives to be a dynamic, respectful and inclusive Service. We value the talent and professional excellence of our staff, and are committed to building an organisation where gender equality and the respect of diversity are core values, as set out in the EEAS Mission Statement and the EEAS Agenda for Diversity and Inclusion. The EEAS is committed to achieving gender balance within its workforce and strives to avoid any form of discrimination during this selection procedure, as per Article 1(d) of the Staff Regulations. We actively welcome applications from all qualified candidates without any discrimination based on any ground. We commit to recruit candidates with the highest standard of ability, efficiency and integrity, carrying out a selection based on merits required for the post and from the broadest possible geographical basis among the EU Member States.

The EEAS is committed to working with people with disabilities in the terms of the Staff Regulations. If, by virtue of your medical condition or special needs, you require reasonable accommodation for a part or the entirety of this selection process, please send us an email to SNE-HQ@eeas.europa.eu. Your request will be treated in strict confidence and no record will be kept. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Article 1(d)(4) of the Staff Regulations.

All selected candidates are expected to adhere to the Principles of Professional Behaviour of the EEAS, which outline the need for integrity, transparency, respect, professionalism and accountability, and a zero tolerance approach to any form of harassment.

ANNEX I

DECLARATION OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST TO BE FILLED BY CANDIDATES

The Decision HR(2026) 18 of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy of 20 July 2026 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the EEAS (hereinafter, the 'EEAS SNE Decision') states:

- in Article 2(3): "The EEAS shall examine whether candidates have any actual or potential conflict of interest or personal interest such as to impair their independence. To that end, candidates, using a dedicated form, shall inform the EEAS of any actual or potential conflict of interest, taking also into account their professional situation and their family circumstances, in particular their own or their family's professional activities or financial interests. On the basis of the assessment conducted, the EEAS may decide not to proceed with the secondment".
- in Article 8(1)(c): "During the secondment, the SNE shall immediately inform their line manager if, in the performance of their duties, they become aware of an actual or potential conflict of interest, or are called upon to give a decision on the handling or the outcome of a matter in which, directly or indirectly, they have a personal interest such as to impair their independence, and, in particular, family's professional activities or financial interests".

It is the candidates' duty to inform through this form the EEAS of any actual or potential conflict of interest regarding their future tasks. They shall be broad in their identification of actual or potential conflict of interests. It is reminded that it will be up to the administration, and not to the candidates themselves, to assess on this basis whether they are sources of conflict of interests and, if applicable, whether they constitute an issue for the secondment.
